Happy to Live Your Faith

Mary, as a true and genuine Mother of the Church, walks together with us, the church of Jesus Christ, her Son. Also in this message we are instructed to live our faith in this year of Faith.

We are situated in this year, which Pope Benedict XVI declared as the year of Faith. Last year on November 11th, 2012 the Pope opened the year of Faith, which ends on November 24th, 2013 on Christ the King Sunday. On this jubilant occasion the Pope announced:

"In recent decades some sort of spiritual "devastation" boomed [...] emptiness spread. However, coming out of desert, from this void, we can re-discover the joy of faith, its viable necessity for us, men and women... Lived faith opens the heart for God's grace that frees us from pessimism. Today, more than ever before, to evangelize means to witness by God's transfigured new life, and in this way to show the way".

Our heavenly Mother Mary urges us to truly live faith, to become a witness of our faith to others. Today, among many Christians there is a visible schism between the faith which they profess and their daily lives. This is one of the evils of our time. Indifference, agnosticism and atheism are active agents hindering those who desire to discover the meaning of life.

Increasingly we observe the absence of God in society. God's revelation in history, which the Bible discusses, seems like a distant past.

For these reasons, the Virgin Mary comes to help us believe deeper and stronger in God. As a mother, she does not force, but invites. We have the freedom to choose to live as if God did not exist. But we must remember that this option is neither a freedom nor autonomy. God offers Himself as a gift to humanity, not in a compelling way. In the freedom of his love, God shared our human existence and took upon himself the effects of our sin. Only God can transform our lives, because without Him we become lonely and lost.

As a mother, Our Lady does not lead us to any idea or ideology, but to the living person of Jesus Christ, whom she knows best. By knowing Jesus more, we get to know ourselves better. Without this mutual meeting and deep encounter with Christ, we remain strangers to ourselves. In Jesus we discover our true identity of being called by Him as one of God's children.

<http://www.catholiccincinnati.org/being-catholic/year-of-faith/pleary-indulgence-for-the-year-of-faith/>

To live the faith means to let yourself be transformed. Faith in Jesus transforms our mind, heart, and will, our views and our interpersonal relationships. Through faith in Jesus we realize that we are pilgrims and that Jesus's Father is our Father. We find that Jesus is our brother, as St. Francis of Assisi liked to say.

By faith we enter a living relationship, and that means that we step out from ourselves. As human beings, we need to put our trust in someone and accept someone's trust, because we cannot be human if we do not give and accept trust. Can we grow up without trusting our parents who brought us into the world? As Julia Kristeva says, there is an "ineffable need to believe" everyone, every person.

Today is not just a crisis of faith in God, but also a crisis of faith in life,

...In Jesus we discover our true identity of being called by Him as one of God's children....

in the future, in love, in a human. All these crises originate in the crisis of faith in God; respectively, they are interrelated. The future of humanity depends on the ability to believe. We cannot be true humans without faith. Imagine your own life without trust in any man. This is a foretaste of hell.

Therefore, it is worth re-teaching ourselves to believe that God can install faith in Christ into our hearts. Today's world eagerly calls as the Greeks of the Gospel who asked the Apostles: "We wish to see Jesus" (Jn 12: 21).

Only if we follow our Blessed Mother, we will be able to know Jesus and show Him to others.

Let us pray:

hearts. Thank you, that despite all our negligence you do not give up on us. You, full of grace and full of God, continue to show us God's patience. Even in this message we recognize your motherly heart that is full of joy. Thank you for your unceasingly leading us to the joy of your Immaculate Heart. Pray for us, so that we can experience the joy that only God can give. May the light of faith, which comes to us from you, radiate in the darkness of despairing hearts so that they may experience the transforming power of God. Amen.

LIVE YOUR FAITH BY HEART IN ANY FORM

This year, along with the Church and Holy Father, the Virgin Mary emphasises the importance of the role of faith. Today's message sounds motherly and joyful to us. With joy in her heart Mary invites us to transform our lives in confession of faith. When we observe close interpersonal relationships we can learn about faith a lot. A child has an unconditional faith in his mother. The sick, helpless, old ones trust those who care for them. When we see faithful friends, loving married couples, one could express their behaviour in one sentence - "I believe you.". The more we get to know one we love the more we open to that person, and the more we believe in them. We believe the ones we love. In one of her messages Mary called us to know and experience God's love through human love. The more I know my Jesus, the more I love Him and the more I believe Him. Jesus is here. My best friend is waiting in prayer, in the Holy Scripture, in Eucharist, in a man, in nature. "Open your heart and give time to God so that He will be your friend. When true friendship with God is realized, no storm can destroy it." (25 June 1997). We can understand Mary's call when she tells us to live our faith and testify to it by heart and examples in every form.

Our life can become a "confession of faith". I believe in God becomes our lifestyle in which we spontaneously express our acknowledgment of God. And this includes every concrete part of our life – what we eat, drink, how we work, what we wear, how we entertain, sleep, relax, speak, are silent. Our lifestyle affects those we meet. Questions about the deeper meaning of life will be born in the minds of people.

One nurse, when having approached a bed of a dying believing sister, said: "When she smiles at me I believe that heaven exists." In a strong intimate union with God we walk carried by love and our lives become a home on the rock, a city on the hilltop, which cannot be hidden. Love of Jesus drives us to give of ourselves, as He does, to serve neighbours, please them, so that we find Him again in them. This is Mary's school.

...Our life can become a

When we strive to live Mary's messages we receive as a gift Mary's faith and her unconditional love for Jesus. In her school we uncover real joy and a desire for eternity. Step by step we find that we can do what she asks of us in one of her messages: "Dear children; Again I call you to faith. My motherly heart desires for your heart to be open so that it could say to your heart: believe. My children, only faith will give you strength in life's trial. It will renew your soul and open the ways of hope. I am with you. I gather you around me because I desire to help you, so that you can help your neighbours to discover faith, which is the only joy and happiness of life. Thank you." (2 October 2008)

Let us surrender ourselves to Mary and to her motherly leadership. Let us simply and humbly beg her to help us become conscious of our responsibilities for the gift of faith. Mary needs us; she wants us to be filled with trust in Jesus.

Let us pray: Mary, even today we fully open our hearts to you. We want to hear you calling – "Believe!" You promise us that you are with us. Let your motherly love bring us to those who need your comfort, tenderness, and motherly carresses. Teach us to look for Jesus in our neighbours, to listen and respond with hearts full of faith and in joyful service, like you. Amen.

WITNESS FAITH...

...Pray, fast and joyfully witness your faith, little children, and may your heart always be filled with prayer...

(October 25, 2009 )

...Little children, today also I invite you to rejoice and be joyful Christians, responsible and conscious that God called you in a special way to be joyfully extended hands toward those who do not believe, and that through the example of your life, they may receive faith and love for God. Therefore, pray, pray, pray that your heart may open and be sensitive for the Word of God...

(November 25, 1997)

...My children, do not deviate from the way on which I am leading you. Do not recklessly walk into perdition. May prayer and fasting strengthen you so that you can live as the Heavenly Father would desire; that you may be my apostles of faith and love; that your life may bless those whom you meet; that you may be one with the Heavenly Father and my Son...

(May 2, 2013)

...Through prayer, the Most High will give you an abundance of grace and you will become my extended hands in this restless world which longs for peace. Little children, with your lives witness faith and pray that faith may grow day by day in your hearts.

I am with you...

(January 25, 2012)

...By Jesus' passion and death on the cross, you will understand that only through prayer you, too, can become true apostles of faith; when, in simplicity and prayer, you live faith which is a gift...

„IN THE SCHOOL OF LOVE“

Love points the way to peace and salvation

„Dear children! Today again I am calling you to prayer and complete surrender to God. You know that I love you and am coming here out of love so I could show you the path to peace and salvation for your souls. I want you to obey me and not permit Satan to seduce you. Dear children, Satan is very strong and, therefore, I ask you to dedicate your prayers to me so that those who are under his influence can be saved. Give witness by your life. Sacrifice your lives for the salvation of the world. I am with you, and I am grateful to you, but in heaven you shall receive the Father's reward which He has promised to you. Therefore, dear children, do not be afraid. If you pray, Satan cannot injure you even a little bit because you are God's children and He is watching over you. Pray and let the rosary always be in your hand as a sign to Satan that you belong to me. Thank you for having responded to my call.“
(February 25, 1988)

Many people in today's world are walking the way of unrest, looking for peace but becoming even more unpeaceful. Desiring salvation, they walk farther from it. The further away we are from peace and salvation, the more anxious we become. The more anxious we are, the easier we lose the way and, instead of peace and salvation, unrest and damnation increase. God does not want us to destroy ourselves in this way. His will is our peace and our salvation because He knows He is peace to our soul and He is life for us. He is the way for the one who is lost, the light for the one in darkness, joy to the one who mourns and He is calling all of us.

In these times, God is sending Mary and calling us through Her. She constantly emphasizes that She comes with love and, with love, She is showing us the way to peace and salvation. She introduces Herself as a leader and educator of Her children.

There is a spiritual war all around us and Satan is strong. He deceives, makes war, destroys and blinds us. So many have become victims of his action. In spite of that, we should not be afraid. Mary, mother and leader, is being victorious with Her own over Satan and his action. Total abandonment, acceptance of God's will, interior and exterior order, and obedience are the conditions for the triumph over Satan. With prayer as the most powerful means and the Rosary as an outer sign, victory and reward will not be absent. Heaven is waiting for us. To start out with Mary, the Morning Star, is to start on the way of peace and salvation which conquers all evil.

Finally, draw your strength from the Lord and from His mighty power. Put on the armor of God so that you may be able to stand firm against the tactics of the devil. For our struggle is not with flesh and blood but with the principalities, with the powers, with the world rulers of this present darkness, with the evil spirits in the heavens. Therefore, put on the armor of God, that you may be able to resist on the evil day and, having done everything, to hold your ground. So stand fast with your loins girded in truth, clothed with righteousness as a breastplate, and your feet shod in readiness for the gospel of peace. In all circumstances, hold faith as a shield, to quench all flaming arrows of the evil one. (Eph 6:10-16)

THE CREED...

I BELIEVE IN GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, CREATOR OF HEAVEN AND EARTH.
I BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST, HIS ONLY SON, OUR LORD,
WHO WAS CONCEIVED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT,
BORN OF THE VIRGIN MARY,
SUFFERED UNDER PONTIUS PILATE,
WAS CRUCIFIED, DIED AND WAS BURIED.
HE DESCENDED TO THE DEAD.
ON THE THIRD DAY, HE ROSE AGAIN.
HE ASCENDED TO HEAVEN AND IS SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND OF THE FATHER. HE WILL COME AGAIN TO JUDGE THE LIVING AND THE DEAD.
I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT, THE HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH,
THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS, THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS,
THE RESURRECTION OF THE BODY, AND LIFE EVERLASTING. AMEN.

The Apostle's Creed associates faith in the forgiveness of sins not only with faith in the Holy Spirit, but also with faith in the Church and in the communion of saints. It was when he gave the Holy Spirit to his apostles that the risen Christ conferred on them his own divine power to forgive sins: "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." Jn 20:22-23

Our Lord tied the forgiveness of sins to faith and Baptism: "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation. He who believes and is baptized will be saved." Mk 16:15-16. Baptism is the first and chief sacrament of forgiveness of sins because it unites us with Christ, who died for our sins and rose for our justification, so that we too might walk in newness of life. When we made our first profession of faith while receiving the holy Baptism that cleansed us, the forgiveness we received then was so full and complete that there remained in us absolutely nothing left to efface, neither original sin nor offenses committed by our own will, nor was there left any penalty to suffer in order to expiate them. Yet the grace of Baptism delivers no one from all the weakness of nature. On the contrary, we must still combat the movements of concupiscence that never cease leading us into evil. In this battle against our inclination towards evil, who could be brave and watchful enough to escape every wound of sin? If the Church has the power to forgive sins, then Baptism cannot be her only means of using the keys of the Kingdom of heaven received from Jesus Christ. the Church must be able to forgive all penitents their offenses, even if they should sin until the last moment of their lives. It is through the sacrament of Penance that the baptized can be reconciled with God and with the Church. Penance has rightly been called by the holy Fathers a laborious kind of baptism. This sacrament of Penance is necessary for salvation for those who have fallen after Baptism, just as Baptism is necessary for salvation for those who have not yet been reborn.

After his Resurrection, Christ sent his apostles "so that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations." Lk 24:47. The apostles and their successors carry out this "ministry of reconciliation," not only by announcing to men God's forgiveness merited for us by Christ, and calling them to conversion and faith; but also by communicating to them the forgiveness of sins in Baptism, and reconciling them with God and with the Church through the power of the keys, received from Christ. The Church has received the keys of the Kingdom of heaven so that, in her, sins may be forgiven through Christ's blood and the Holy Spirit's action. In this Church, the soul dead through sin comes back to life in order to live with Christ, whose grace has saved us. There is no offense, however serious, that the Church cannot forgive. "There is no one, however wicked and guilty, who may not confidently hope for forgiveness, provided his repentance is honest. Christ who died for all men desires that in his Church the gates of forgiveness should always be open to anyone who turns away from sin. Catechesis strives to awaken and nourish in the faithful faith in the incomparable greatness of the risen Christ's gift to his Church: the mission and the power to forgive sins through the ministry of the apostles and their successors. The Lord wills that his disciples possess a tremendous power: that his lowly servants accomplish in his name all that he did when he was on earth. Priests have received from God a power that he has given neither to angels nor to archangels. God above confirms what priests do here below. Were there no forgiveness of sins in the Church, there would be no hope of life to come or eternal liberation.

Let us thank God who has given his Church such a gift.

THE LORD HAS DONE GREAT THINGS FOR US!

I want to encourage you with my story to have grater belief in Mother Mary and in her attentive love. At the same time I want to assure you that She knows you better than you know yourself and that She knows exactly what you need.

I never wanted to be a wife and mother, but at the same time I had a great fear and felt respect for this vocation, especially, when I saw all the bad things that happened in the families around me. All these things hurt me very much. My heart was blocked and was closed to any of God's gifts until I was thirty-three years old. I decided to make a pilgrimage to Medugorje. There I heard the story of Patrick and Nancy and then began to desire a 'Marian husband' (one who loves and honors the Blessed Mother). I prayed that She would send me this sort of man and no one else.

Three years ago, I placed my broken heart into Her hands with my desire for marriage.

I considered this desire as unattainable because I had platonically been in love with a certain man for ten years. Our relationship did not move forward in any way, neither from my side nor his side. I felt helpless. Just, when I felt the biggest crisis because of that, I learned about our Lady under the title of the Virgin Mary Untier of knots. With great faith, I gave Her this 'knot' and She started to untie it immediately.

She knew I needed Her help and She choose the best way to help me. Exactly one year after I asked Her for this grace, I was given a Marian husband.

By a miracle, I got a year off work and I lived seven months in a community called The Mary's Light in Medjugorje. Just the first week of my stay, at the end of our prayer period, fasting and silence, Mary began to work. One of the participants came to me at the end of seminar. His name was Brano and he told me a message that even he did not understand. He just strongly felt that he had to tell me: 'You will have a good husband!' Neither one of us thought of each other in this way but at that time God started to fulfil His will. We thought that we would never see each other again, and we talked politely for about fifteen minutes. After that he went to Slovakia with other participants and later I had to send them all the materials from the seminar via internet. He was thankful for the materials and we sent to each other two friendly e-mails. Nothing more. I didn't even remember what he looked like.

After the seminar, an intensive therapy was waiting for me by Mother Mary. Thanks to the Holy Masses, confessions, Eucharist, adorations, rosaries and a community of great people, step by step my heart was healed, not only from the fear of marriage, but also from a long-lasting unfulfilled love. I became more free.

After two painful months, it was on New Year's Day, the feast of Mary the Mother of God, that I felt an unbelievable freedom. It was a feeling I had never experienced.

I found out that during those two months the Virgin Mary was untying all my painful knots, which hindered me from living the life for which I was created.

In the course of her plans, Mother Mary prompted the forgotten Brano to email me again.

He was simple, honest and he opened my heart. For the next five months that I spent in Medjugorje, we became very close. Now he is 'my Brano' J.

True love was born in my life and I knew this love to be mutual.

We fit to each other as if we had known each other for ages.

Each message from him brought me a great joy.

He tried to understand my heart and he was a great encouragement to me.

Throughout the whole thing, the Blessed Mary helped me a lot. When I went back to Slovakia, we met each other in Turzovka. It was a wonderful meeting. For the next year, we spent time getting to know each other.

Brano is a great man, exactly the one I needed and the one I asked for; he is simply a gift from the Virgin Mary. As I am writing this story, I look into his eyes and to the ring on my finger and I can't believe that we have been married for already two weeks. Now I know that all those years, I had been waiting for him! And I was rewarded! I do not regret anything, because the treasure I was dreaming about is now standing at my side.

The Blessed Mother takes care of all of Her children; she sees their suffering, and she desires to help them to live a life of great holiness.

Through her intercession may we become great children of God!

The Light of MARY

„To bring Jesus - the Light of Mary - to every human heart“

WHO ARE WE?

The Light of Mary is a prayer group, which members want to walk on the path of holiness, led by Our Lady in this special time. Through witness of their lives, in the spirit of the Gospel and messages of Our Lady they want to bring Jesus - the Light of the world, to this world; to renew the life of faith in their parishes.

„Dear children! Today also, joy is in my heart. I wish to thank you for making my plan possible to become reality. Each of you is important therefore, little children, pray and rejoice with me over every heart that has converted and become an instrument of peace in the world. Prayer groups are powerful, and through them I can see, little children, that the Holy Spirit is at work in the world. Thank you for having responded to my call.“ June 25, 2004

FIRST SATURDAY OF EACH MONTH

We usually meet in prayer on the first Saturday of each month.

If possible, the prayer meetings are held on this day. We pray three rosaries, attend Holy Mass, Adoration and read reflections from the newspaper. We all pray for the intentions given in the newspaper, for the period of a whole month.

NEWSPAPER „THE LIGHT OF MARY“

Through our newspaper we unite in prayer with our brothers and sisters from prayer groups mostly from the eastern countries – Russia, Ukraine, Lithuania, Latvia, Moldavia, Belorussia, Kazakhstan, Tajikistan, but also Pakistan, India, Slovakia, Czech Republic, USA, Germany, Austria.

Our newspaper is published monthly since December, 2004. The new issue is sent via email a few days after the Virgin Mary gives Her message on each 25th day of the month. Voice Medjugorje is published in Russian, Ukrainian, Slovak, Lithuanian, Lithuanian, German and English language.

PRAYER GROUPS SM

Prayer groups usually meet in prayer every week. If possible, the meetings are held at church. Program of each meeting is simple, the prayer consists of rosary prayer, reflection on the Bible and messages of Our Lady, sharing, prayer for the intention of Our Lady, for the needs of the neighbors and consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Our Lady.

IN OUR LIVES WE ATTEMPT TO FOLLOW THE MESSAGES OF OUR LADY:

- to pray three rosaries a day
- to fast every Wednesday and Friday
- to confess monthly
- to attend Holy Masses, often receive Holy Communion and adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament
- to pray for the priests and Church
- to meet in prayer groups at least once a week, according to agreement of the members
- to help and serve our neighbours in a specific way

If you want to join us in prayer or receive our newspaper, please send an email to: gospa3@gmail.com
