MESSAGE OF OUR LADY, QUEEN OF PEACE

December 25, Medjugorje

to Maria Pavlović-Lunetti

“Dear children!

Also today, in my arms I am carrying my Son Jesus to you and I am asking from Him peace for you and peace among you. Pray to and adore my Son for His peace and joy to enter into your hearts. I am praying for you to be all the more open to prayer.

Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MESSAGE OF OUR LADY QUEEN OF PEACE

December 25, Medjugorje

to Jakov Čolo

At the last daily apparition to Jakov Colo on September 12th, 1998, Our Lady told him that henceforth he would have one apparition a year, every December 25th, on Christmas Day. This is also how it was this year. The apparition began at 2:40 pm and lasted 8 minutes. Afterwards Jakov transmitted the message:

“Dear children!

Today, on this day of grace, I desire for each of your hearts to become a little stable of Bethlehem in which the Savior of the world was born. I am your mother who loves you immeasurably and is concerned for each of you. Therefore, my children, abandon yourselves to the mother, so that she may place each of your hearts and lives before little Jesus; because only in this way, my children, your hearts will be witnesses of God’s daily birth in you. Permit God to illuminate your lives with light and your hearts with joy, so that you may daily illuminate the way and be an example of true joy to others who live in darkness and are not open to God and His graces. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

I REQUEST FROM JESUS PEACE FOR YOU AND PEACE AMONG YOU

One of the first of Mary's messages was, 'Dear children, let peace reign between man and God and among people themselves.' Our Lady in Medjugorje presented herself as the Queen of Peace. She is the mother of Jesus, the mother of the Prince of Peace. Only he, Jesus, can give true peace and joy. In the message on the anniversary of her apparitions, Our Lady said, 'I want to lead you all only to Him, and in Him you will find true peace and joy of your heart.'

One's own heart cannot deceive. It knows who created it and who is the only one that can fill it with meaning and peace. We carry within ourselves the memory of lost paradise. In every man there is a desire for innocence, a desire for the pure child. In the depths of the heart there is a hidden treasure, which we still look for. Our eyes see the earthly, but the heart seeks the eternal, the heavenly. Mary invites us to find faith through hope, peace, through prayer and love, through Jesus who is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

To live in peace and to find your peace, this is the peak of life's fulfillment. However, life is not fully fulfilled by knowledge, possessions, success, nor even by victory. Life reaches its fullness in inner peace, quiet happiness and safety, which is from trust in someone, and not in anything. Finding someone as a support and as a real support, that brings true peace.

But a person would be an uncertain

...In the depths of the heart
there is a hidden treasure, which we still look for...

support because he or she is of the same material, human. People are passing, volatile and fragile. Therefore, it is wise to realize that the human support we look for, from someone similar or the same as we are is important and necessary because it is not good for a man to be alone, but it is not permanent, nor definitive. People can only be our travelling companions, but not the aim of our journey. Only one can be our everything: the path and the aim of our pilgrimage. He is a constant support to anyone who hopes in Him. One thing is friends, fellow travelers, dear and precious people, but only he is the Lord, our harbor and peace.

Christianity is not a collection of laws and customs, the assembly of theory and programs. In the center of Christian doctrine stands the person of Jesus of Nazareth, who is Christ, which means anointed from God, the Messiah, in whom it is possible to meet with God. He is the way to God and therefore the Savior, and therefore He can be the support of every life, every moment and every opportunity. It is necessary only to meet Him. And those who meet Him will experience what the prophet says: He is peace! The celebration of Christmas is to search for an encounter with Jesus, newborn, who wants us to be born again. The rest of the feast is less important, less valuable, indeed often even useless and unnecessary. Unfortunately nowadays Christmas is celebrated without Jesus. And after such a celebration, emptiness and the meaninglessness of life remain in the heart.

...those who meet Him will experience what the prophet says: He is peace!...

Let us pray:

Mary, you who have brought Jesus into the world and who cannot stop giving Him to the world and to each one of us, implore the grace of an open heart for us, that we will be able to take Him to our homes, so that our families and hearts may become a cave of Bethlehem, where even today

Jesus may be born. Thank you to you, Virgin and Mother, that you are tireless and patient in your love for us, with the desire that we become a blessing for others. Obtain for us so the grace that we may bear witness that God gave us in Jesus, His love, life, the light of truth, forgiveness of sin and true peace. Obtain for us the courage to hand ourselves over into the hands of God, in order to carry out the will of God in our lives. We want to follow your example of trust in God to become day by day more alike to God and ever more godly. Amen.

WORSHIP MY SON

The peace of our heart is in Mary's arms. According to the testimony of the visionaries, on the first day of the apparitions, 24th June 1981, the Queen of Peace appeared with the baby Jesus in her arms. This is also the way she appears every year on December 25th. Even this Christmas we hear her motherly words, 'Abandon yourselves to the mother, so that she may place each of your hearts and lives before little Jesus, because only in this way your hearts will be witnesses of God's daily birth in you.' God needed a mother to come to this world. He knows that we need her too.

Let us observe Mary, how she leads those who are not afraid to surrender to her and accept her with confidence as Joseph did. He believed in God's promise – that what was happening within Mary was of the Holy Spirit.

Another fine example is the beloved disciple John. He loved the Lord and remained with him in suffering until the death on the cross, along with Mary. Then as the first who rushed to the tomb, he surpassed all. John was also the first among the disciples to meet the resurrected Lord, proclaiming, 'It is the Lord', when Jesus appeared to them on the shore of the Tiberian sea.

This is what Mary teaches us in her school. In a confidential conversation and surrender to her as mother, we manage to be always in the right place at the right time. With her we learn to discern and respond promptly as Joseph did, as the beloved disciple John did. In the everyday events of daily life we come to know the Lord and his action.

...The peace of our heart is in Mary's arms...

Mary invites us in her messages to meditate daily and to live the Gospel, to keep Jesus' words in our heart as she did. Thus our eyes and hearts become able to see further, we can react specifically, more ready in the service of love than others.

In the Christmas message Mary invites us, 'Adore my Son'. On our knees we can become witnesses to the birth of Jesus in everyday life. When we look at the scene of Jesus' birth, we can learn from those who worshiped him in Bethlehem.

They were poor shepherds who went soon after the revelation and the joyful message of the angels to the cave of Bethlehem, to see what had happened. The Lord also today sends his messages through people, nature and events which are taking place. Let us learn to be like the shepherds and to accept the invitation to goodness and to rush to accomplish it in small things. St. Francis said, 'Whenever we hear the call to goodness, when we feel that we want to get better, it is Jesus who is knocking at our door'. Let us follow Jesus, as the simple shepherds did.

...When we hold mother's hand we get never lost, even in the greatest darkness...

The three kings are wise witnesses of Jesus' birth. They came to worship him. Modern man looks for peace of mind in books or in material things, yet sages show us that it can be found on our knees. With this example we find the invitation to ask for the gift of wisdom and discernment. The Queen of Peace teaches us – 'pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit so that in the spirit of love, every day and in each situation, you may be closer to your fellow-man; and that in wisdom and love you may overcome every difficulty.'

When we daily feed our hearts with the Word of God, contemplate it and strive to live it, step by step we acquire the ability to believe the promises of God.

Mary received the word and it became life. She is the radiance of Jesus' face and the presence of peace, which reflects upon and spreads to all who worship him. 'When you adore my Son, special graces are then being received,' she told us in the message of 15th March 1984.

Mary constantly bends down with us before Jesus and implores for us the gift of peace. Her humble, gentle, motherly presence full of light always attracts us as an example, which we want to follow.

When we hold mother's hand we get never lost, even in the greatest darkness. With her, we never get lost because she teaches us to look to her arms, where the peace of our heart is, the newborn King of Peace. She is the Star of the Sea, the ray of hope that will bring us safely to the eternal horizon.

Let us pray:

We adore you, our Lord and God. Give us the grace to never forget that you are born daily in this world. Anchor our hearts with your peace. We adore you with Mary. Shine forth with light and joy in our lives, so that every day we can illuminate the path and be an example of true joy to those who live in darkness and who are not open to God and his grace – as is the desire of your and our mother Mary. Amen

...Today, little children, you do not have peace and yet you yearn for it. That is why, with my Son Jesus, on this day I call you to pray, pray, pray, because, without prayer you do not have joy or peace or a future. Yearn for peace and seek it, for God is true peace...

FAST WITH THE HEARTH

September 4, 1986

“Dear children! Today again I am calling you to prayer and fasting. You know, dear children, that with your help I am able to accomplish everything and force Satan not to be seducing to evil and to remove himself from this place. Dear children, Satan is lurking for each individual. Especially in everyday affairs he wants to spread confusion among each one of you. Therefore, dear children, my call to you is that your day would be only prayer and complete surrender to God. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Fasting and prayer are the best means in the battle against Satan. Only by prayer and fasting can Satan be forced to withdraw from his evil plans and be distanced from the faithful in general and from this place. Jesus said to the disciples that there are kinds of evil spirits which cannot be cast out except by prayer and fasting.

December 4, 1986

“Dear children! Today I call you to prepare your hearts for these days when the Lord particularly desires to purify you from all the sins of your past. You, dear children, are not able by yourselves, therefore I am here to help you. You pray, dear children! Only that way shall you be able to recognize all the evil that is in you and surrender it to the Lord so the Lord may completely purify your hearts. Therefore, dear children, pray without ceasing and prepare your hearts in penance and fasting. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Fasting and prayer are a means through which we open ourselves to God, Who can cleanse us of all the sins of our past. Alone we cannot help ourselves and without prayer and fasting, we cannot recognize the evil that wants to destroy us.

Preparation of hearts for cooperation with God takes place in prayer and fasting.

July 25, 1991

“Dear children! Today I invite you to pray for peace. At this time peace is being threatened in a special way, and I am seeking from you to renew fasting and prayer in your families. Dear children, I desire you to grasp the seriousness of the situation and that much of what will happen depends on your prayers and you are praying a little bit. Dear children, I am with you and I am inviting you to begin to pray and fast seriously as in the first days of my coming. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Prayer and fasting are a means of protecting the endangered peace. Mary not only calls individuals but also families to pray and to fast so that evil may be stopped. This call is serious because what will happen in the world depends on how much we pray and fast. We recall how the prophet Jonah called the Ninevites to prayer and fasting so that the city would not be destroyed. Everyone fasted and prayed and the city was spared.

August 25. 1991

“Dear children! Today also I invite you to prayer, now as never before when my plan has begun to be realized. Satan is strong and wants to sweep away plans of peace and joy and make you think that my Son is not strong in his decisions. Therefore, I call all of you, dear children to pray and fast still more firmly. I invite you to renunciation for 9 days so that with your help everything I desired to be realized through the secrets I began in Fatima may be fulfilled. I call you, dear children, to grasp the importance of my coming and the seriousness of the situation. I want to save all souls and present them to God. Therefore, let us pray that everything I have begun be fully realized. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

When Satan threatens God’s plans, then the Queen of Prophets, as all prophets would, calls to more ardent fasting and prayer. This is so that Satan can be confounded in his plans of destruction and ruin in God’s plans, which were especially revealed in the Fatima messages. It is actually a matter of salvation and of realization of everything God has entrusted to Mary, the Queen of Peace and the Queen of Prophets.

March 25. 1992

“Dear children! Today as never before I invite you to live my messages and to put them into practice in your life. I have come to you to help you and, therefore, I invite you to change your life because you have taken a path of misery, a path of ruin. When I told you: convert, pray, fast, be reconciled, you took these messages superficially. You started to live them and then you stopped, because it was difficult for you. No, dear children, when something is good, you have to persevere in the good and not think: God does not see me, He is not listening, He is not helping. And so you have gone away from God and from me because of your miserable interest. I wanted to create of you an oasis of peace, love and goodness. God wanted you with your love and with His help, to do miracles and, thus, give an example. Therefore, here is what I say to you: Satan is playing with you and with your souls and I cannot help you because you are far away from my heart. Therefore, pray, live my messages and then you will see the miracles of God’s love in your everyday life. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

We have taken the messages of fasting and prayer superficially and without seriousness. That is why Mary is saying that Satan is playing with our souls. He is the enemy who can be conquered only by fasting and prayer. Mary is sad that we turned away from Her messages and that we do not live them. She desires to create an oasis of peace of us but what will happen depends on us.

FOR FAMILIES, TO BE STRONG IN GOD...

“After all, a really autonomous and spiritually strong nation has always been formed of strong families, aware of their vocation and mission in history.” (Letter to Families, 17)

We all know that the family is nowadays under threat. It is threatened in its existence and the term ‘strong family’ seems to be something from the past, from ancient history.

Which family is strong today? We are tempted to say that such a family does not exist. Many people live without true family union, without the family institution and so-called ‘free unions' are on the increase. Many people broke their marriage contract. The number of divorces and incomplete families is on the increase, and orphans, half-orphans and social orphans grow in numbers.

Zdroj: <http://www.humanparenting.org>

How can we get closer to people, how can we help them become a strong family? A believing person understands well that the power which unifies people and makes a 'strong family' out of them is the power of the Sacrament of Matrimony, if they really draw on it. A strong family is a family which is strong in faith, rooted in God and tied not only by bonds of real, sacrificing love, but which is aware of other people too and is responsible for the whole community.

People who live in harsh conditions are willing to help. People who live in the comfort of cities think only of themselves – though of course, not all of them. However, in cities, especially in big cities, it is more difficult to develop social relations. In the anthill of big cities people actually live in isolation and do not know each other.

If the Pope writes about a 'family being aware of its vocation', it relates to this task – the family is to create society, nation, simply a group of people who are interconnected by loving, knowing, helping one another and developing brotherly affection. In the countryside it is easier; people know each other and pray more.

A 'strong family' is one which is active in doing good, taking responsibility and is able to direct social activity. If something goes wrong, no complaining or criticism helps, only a rational approach to which everyone contributes. Everyone can do something for the common good. But there must be a 'leader' who can move people, touching the depths of their heart so that merciful love awakens, open to others.

The family has the task of becoming

...the family is to create society, nation, simply a group of people who are interconnected by loving...

ing open, of being the light. Pope Paul VI in his Humanae Vitae wrote that Christian couples have the task of 'making visible holiness and joy'. But how to achieve this in families? We undertake various social activities, pastoral initiatives, but the results are insufficient.

One man. One man can do so much! And how much could all do together!

The letter of the Holy Father is an invitation to initiatives, to social activities. The letter is addressed to every person separately, but also to all people altogether. It is an invitation which waits for a response!

Thoughts are taken from the book: For families, to be strong in God..., Wanda Póltawska (SALIFOTO, 2010).

WAS MY WAY ALONG WHICH MARY WAS LEADING ME

The summer had arrived. I graduated from university; I was to start a career in a successful company and temptations of this world were ahead of me. Changes for the worse were not a long time coming. But God saved me. Despite the start of my adult life and all the temptations of this world, I started to seek for an opportunity to go to Medjugorje. Thinking about a pilgrimage, I knew that I could come back changed and that's why I felt some resistance within me. I realized how painful it was for me when I had interrupted my relationship with the Church. So why go back again? But I said my 'yes' and I surrendered everything into the hands of God and Our Lady... I didn't even pray properly for the journey, I was simply waiting to see if something would happen. I gave my Christian books, medals and other spiritual objects to the Church and I had twenty euros in total in my account.

I wanted to serve in Medjugorje

...I said my 'yes' and I surrendered everything into the hands of God and Our Lady...

and it looked hopeful, but I had no accommodation. I wrote to the prayer group The Light of Mary in Medjugorje and asked them if I could stay with them but all their places were taken until September. The community promised me though, that they would pray for my vocation and for God to reveal to me his plan for me. I was supposed to start a new job in two weeks. The day before I went to the dormitory and I found out that they had kicked me out of there. Despite this I pulled myself together and I went to work.

I had to hide my feelings all day. I was upset not that they had kicked me out but because of the way in which they had let me know about it. That day my colleagues and I started filming in the pavilion of Business College. I plucked up some courage and started to prepare the room for work. I was surprised when I found the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe next to the wooden model of an airplane. I was confused. What was Our Lady doing in such place? On the other hand, I was happy – Our Lady was with me.

That night I received an email from North America telling me that Our Lady (yes, Our Lady) had arranged a flat in Medjugorje for me from September. I could go and start serving. I felt deep joy and the certainty that I would be there. It was decided – I would go. I wanted to join the group of pilgrims travelling to Medjugorje by bus but they didn't take me, so I had to buy a flight (if Our Lady hadn't helped me, I couldn't have afforded it myself). I flew to Medjugorje through Istanbul, over Ukraine. It was 17th July. In the afternoon, there came the news that a Malaysian plane had been shot down, and I have understood for the first time how serious the situation was and what was actually happening in Ukraine. When I arrived in Medjugorje everything was calm, but my heart was hard. I didn't feel anything special, not even the joy and feelings that I had had at home – the feelings which I had also experienced both times that I was in Medjugorje before. The transformation in my heart was taking place very slowly and it wasn't easy to open my heart again. Some weeks later, during the apparition, I felt a desire to go to confession – I hadn't been to confession in about one year.

Before confession I went to pray in the church. I hesitated, but I felt that Our Lady, literally, was taking my hand and leading me to confession. It was a relief. I could write another testimony about the things I experienced. It was as if someone's hands took a heavy burden off my shoulders. At the confession the priest allowed me to speak and turn directly to Jesus. Crying over my sins inside me, I put them all on the cross. This confession was miraculous – I felt physical lightness. My burden just disappeared. I thought that this lightness would be there for only one night, but I felt it for a long time. It was real. I can hardly describe what I felt.

September was approaching and there was an opportunity to spend two weeks in the community The Light of Mary. When I went there for the first visit and entered the dining room, there she was waiting on the wall – Our Lady of Guadalupe...

Looking back, I know that it was my way along which Mary was leading me. She led me not only to inner freedom, but also to the community. I had waited for it for three years.
