MESSAGE OF OUR LADY, QUEEN OF PEACE

January 25, Medjugorje

to Maria Pavlović-Lunetti

“Dear children!

Also today I call you: live your vocation in prayer. Now, as never before, Satan wants to suffocate man and his soul by his contagious wind of hatred and unrest. In many hearts there is no joy because there is no God or prayer. Hatred and war are growing from day to day. I am calling you, little children, begin anew, with enthusiasm, the walk of holiness and love; since I have come among you because of this. Together let us be love and forgiveness for all those who know and want to love only with a human love and not with that immeasurable love of God to which God calls you. Little children, may hope in a better tomorrow always be in your heart.

Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MESSAGE OF OUR LADY QUEEN OF PEACE

February 2, Medjugorje

to Mirjana Dragićević-Soldo

“Dear children!

I am here, I am among you. I am looking at you, am smiling at you and I love you in the way that only a mother can. Through the Holy Spirit who comes through my purity, I see your hearts and I offer them to my Son. Already for a long time I have been asking of you to be my apostles, to pray for those who have not come to know God's love. I am asking for prayer said out of love, prayer which carries out works and sacrifices. Do not waste time thinking about whether you are worthy to be my apostles. The Heavenly Father will judge everyone; and you, love him and listen to him. I know that all of this confuses you, even my very stay among you, but accept it with joy and pray that you may comprehend that you are worthy to work for Heaven. My love is upon you. Pray that my love may win in all hearts, because that is the love which forgives, gives and never stops.”

BEGIN ANEW WITH ENTHUSIASM THE WALK OF HOLINESS

Mary does not stop speaking. This message reinforces once again, the truth about Our Lady's presence with us and for us. The length of the apparitions in Medjugorje tells us about her presence in our time. But not only today is Mother Mary with us, she has been present from the beginning of the Church. Countless Marian shrines around the world testify to her spiritual presence among us. Mary is the beginning of a better world. She is our patron, mediator and advocate of grace. Jesus wants us to open our eyes for us to know her as his mother, and he wants us to receive her as the apostle John accepted her into "his house", into his life.

Mary lived on earth with her look directed toward heaven. Her life has been similar to our lives. She has gone along the path of life, weaved from the beginning by anxieties and questions: How can this be? How has Herod learned of the child's birth? Why does he want to kill him? How long will we have to stay in Egypt? Will we see our lost son again? What is the horror of Calvary? Everything is veiled in mist. Where is God? Questions, only questions...

What would Mother do before a hopeless silence? Should she be scared? No. Should she despair? No. The Gospel introduces Mother three times as the one who thinks with her heart, she remembers the ancient words and compares them with the sad events that have just happened. In the midst of silence and darkness she seeks the face of God.

...Mary is the beginning of a better world...

She had to try alone to carefully store the memories of all the events and words. She had to try to carefully ponder them in her heart, to assess them in the spirit and constantly think about them. Exactly this way, walking through life – in the middle of the dark contradictions of life – she has sought to find God's will and God's plan.

Mary was a pilgrim of faith, because she did not know everything. In her life a blessing is realized which was given to her by St. Elizabeth: "Blessed is she who believed..." (Lk 1, 45). In Mary we see the most perfect example of our faith. On our journey of faith she is near to us. Therefore she can say, My children, walk with me. I myself went along these pathways of the dark night and the night without stars. Do what I did: Surrender yourself to God's silence in order to conquer fear, darkness and night. And blessed are those who, in the middle of the dark night, believe in the light.

Zdroj: <http://www.foto.fnt.stuba.sk>

In her life all trials ended with an increased confidence. While going through so many tests, she never betrayed God. In her life she has been God's ideal, so that she became God's masterpiece, the most perfect incarnation of God's plan. Between our faith and life, words and deeds, ideals and their implementation, is a contradiction. Consequently, in the trial of faith we either yield or leave. In this sense, Mary awakens a twinge within us.

Mary, who is an example to us of surrendering to God with confidence, may be called the Mother of God of receiving or of surrender to God, because she was constantly saying to God: "Thy will be done."

It is certain that God does not want war and hatred, which every day become more widespread. This is not the fruit of the disciples of Jesus, but of those who do not belong to Jesus and his mother. Mary shows us the way. She encourages us to dare to reawaken a passion for prayer, and so become more and more godlike, which is the only source of love and peace.

Let us follow the invitation of our Mother in order to experience the power of God, who wants to give Himself anew and to lead us on the way of life and not of hatred and war.

Let us pray:

Mary, Queen of Peace, we turn to you, who here in Medjugorje presented yourself as Mother and Queen of Peace. You came with Jesus in your arms – the Prince of Peace. He alone is our peace. Among your first words you said: 'Peace, peace, let peace reign between God and man and between people themselves.' We have recourse to you, Mother of peace, and we beseech peace from you. Peace in our hearts, peace in our thoughts, peace in our desires. To you we entrust all the hearts that are in turmoil and obsessive hatred. We ask, Queen of Peace, that you obtain peace for all nations that are at war. Obtain peace for all hearts that are filled with fear. Let peace reign; peace which comes from the Lord and which he gives to all who seek him and implore it of him. Amen.

HOPE IN A BETTER TOMORROW

When a child is afraid at night, he cries. If someone unknown comes and offers him a dummy, cuddles him, swings him in the arms, it usually takes a long time to calm him down. And sometimes it does not even work. When, however, the mother comes, saying loving words and taking the baby in her arms, the baby calms down. It is enough when mother comes.

This is the message of Our Lady. Today, when the media overloads us with so much alarming, black news, some information can really terrify us. The Queen of Peace also speaks about it. She calls the situation by its name. The world is really swayed in the contagious wind of hatred and unrest, which can be deadly. Also now, as it was during other serious events of this world, Mary offers to us the solution of how to stop war which is growing from day to day. Like a mother to her children, she tirelessly repeats to us where our hope is. It is not in a bank account, an insurance policy or the social certainty offered to us by advertising campaigns, political parties or government representatives. We see how we can lose everything in one second. Mankind misses prayer – this simple tool. “In many hearts there is no joy because there is no God or prayer,” says our heavenly Mother. “Live your vocation in prayer”, Our Lady encourages us.

Our prayers are the fathers and mothers of what is going on around the world. “Prayer is creative power in the world,” says Origen. The power of prayer is the power of the Holy Spirit which renews the face of the earth and creates everything anew.

“I am only a poor, praying woman,” explained Mother Teresa, as the answer to the secret of where she receives the strength to endlessly answer Jesus’s words: “I thirst”. The Queen of Peace often invites us to pray. When fierce fighting was going on during the war in former Yugoslavia, she repeated several times: “Pray, pray, pray.” “Dear Children! I desire you to grasp the seriousness of the situation and that much of what will happen depends on your prayers and you are praying a little bit. Dear children, I am with you and I am inviting you to begin to pray and fast seriously as in the first days of my coming” (25th July 1991).

When we pray we have hope. Jesus teaches us to search for this hope in the Gospel. His hope was nourished by prayer. Jesus often prayed the whole night. Now for already thirty-three years and seven months the Queen of Peace has been telling us about this hope. It is encouraging to see how people are organising non-stop prayer, continual prayer for different intentions. “As individuals, my children, you cannot stop the evil that wants to begin to rule in this world and to destroy it. But, according to God’s will, all together, with my Son, you can change everything and heal the world.” (2nd August 2011).

Also in today’s message Our Lady encourages us to the power of community: “Together let us be love and forgiveness for all those who know and want to love only with a human love and not with that immeasurable love of God to which God calls you.”

How much joy it brings, this vision that love together with Mary is the power which will stop even what seems impossible to be stopped by humans. Just as she told us in the message of 28th February 1985: “Dear children, through love you will achieve everything and even what you think is impossible.”

...The power of prayer is the power of the Holy Spirit which renews the face of the earth and creates everything anew...

Let us pray:

Lord, thank you for the joy we always feel when we remember your promise that you are with us always, to the end of time. We join all those who have decided to set out on the journey of holiness with Mary. We pray for the gift of love and forgiveness for those who know and want to love only with a human love and not with that immeasurable love of God, to which God calls us.

We devote the whole of mankind to you and pray for the fulfilment of your plans of peace through Mary. Amen.

FAST WITH THE HEARTH

“Dear children! Today also I invite you to prayer. Only by prayer and fasting can war be stopped. Therefore, my dear little children, pray and by your life give witness that you are mine and that you belong to me, because Satan wishes in these turbulent days to seduce as many souls as possible. Therefore, I invite you to decide for God and He will protect you and show you what you should do and which path to take. I invite all those who have said ‘yes’ to me to renew their consecration to my Son Jesus and to His Heart and to me so we can take you more intensely as instruments of peace in this unpeaceful world. Medjugorje is a sign to all of you and a call to pray and live the days of grace that God is giving you. Therefore, dear children, accept the call to prayer with seriousness. I am with you and your suffering is also mine. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Even wars can be stopped by prayer and fasting. This is one of the first messages Our Lady gave. Fasting and prayer can stop even natural disasters. Peace also depends on prayer and fasting. We need to understand this with seriousness. Mary is with us and suffers with us.

November 25, 1996

“Dear children! Today, again, I invite you to pray, so that through prayer, fasting and small sacrifices you may prepare yourselves for the coming of Jesus. May this time, little children, be a time of grace for you. Use every moment and do good, for only in this way will you feel the birth of Jesus in your hearts. If with your life give an example and become a sign of God’s love, joy will prevail in the hearts of men. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Our Lady gave us this message just at the beginning of the Christmas season. Prayer and fasting are a means by which we can prepare ourselves for the coming of Jesus. Only by prayer and fasting can our hearts be cleansed and completely opened to His coming. Prayer and fasting free man from incorrect relationships with himself, with God, with others and especially with material things.

“Dear children! Also today I call you to fasting and renunciation. Little children, renounce that which hinders you from being closer to Jesus. In a special way I call you: Pray, because only through prayer will you be able to overcome your will and discover the will of God even in the smallest things. By your daily life, little children, you will become an example and witness that you live for Jesus or against Him and His will. Little Children, I desire that you become apostles of love. By loving, little children, it will be recognized that you are mine. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Prayer and fasting help us to turn away from everything that hinders us from coming closer to Jesus. We must conquer our own will and open ourselves to the will of God. In this way, we become witnesses for Jesus and apostles of His Love; we become recognizable signs of God’s presence in the world. By prayer and fasting, we must achieve inner freedom from everything that separates us from Jesus.

October 25, 1998

“Dear children! Today I call you to come closer to my Immaculate Heart. I call you to renew in your families the fervor of the first days when I called you to fasting, prayer and conversion. Little children, you accepted my messages with open hearts, although you did not know what prayer was. Today, I call you to open yourselves completely to me so that I may transform you and lead you to the heart of my son Jesus, so that He can fill you with His love. Only in this way, little children, will you find true peace – the peace that only God gives you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

At the beginning of the apparitions many people fasted and prayed. Over time, forgetfulness and fatigue set in. Mary calls us to again return to the initial fervor and to accept prayer and fasting so that our hearts may be completely open and that our transformation can continue. We are called to become similar to the Heart of Jesus and to Mary’s Heart. Prayer and fasting are conditions for opening ourselves to the peace God gives.

FOR FAMILIES, TO BE STRONG IN GOD...

“Don’t be afraid of dangers! God’s power is stronger than your troubles! The sacrament of reconciliation is much more efficient than the evil around us.” (Letter to Families, 18)

Zdroj: <http://www.olfatimachurch.com>

Zdroj: <http://www.cancaonova.com>

...The sacrament of marriage means that there is someone else now present in our lives, that we are not alone, because God is with us...

The grace of the sacrament of marriage means that God is present among us.

The sacrament of marriage has not just the power of God helping to make good, but it is the real presence of God that we can rely on. This is the full truth about marriage. It is a presence which depends on the couple. The husband and wife can have God by themselves every day.

People do not realize that they themselves can “bring” or chase away the grace of a sacrament. By sinning they close their hearts and only the sacrament of reconciliation – confession – opens the soul for grace and allows God to enter the family.

Jesus Christ was a guest at a wedding in Cana of Galilee. And He always was and is present in a sacred marriage. But how does a married couple see Him?

The sacrament of marriage means that there is someone else now present in our lives, that we are not alone, because God is with us – the groom that remains faithful unless we push Him away! This is the difference between the sacrament of marriage and a civil marriage. The groom, Christ, is present – He penetrates the human heart, knows everything, and loves “unto the end”.

How much easier the life of couples would be if they kept on realizing this truth! They refuse Him but He is waiting. God is waiting for man; He is always ready to be with man.

Thoughts are taken from the book: For families, to be strong in God..., Wanda Póltawska (SALI-FOTO, 2010).

A TREASURE TO EVERY CHRISTIAN

I would like to share with you my joy – the endless, marvelous and great gift I found in adoration. I would describe it as the discovery of the strength and beauty of the Eucharist.

Fifteen years ago I was in Lourdes with the Community of the Beatitudes and there, during spiritual exercises, I got to know the depth, strength and joy in the Blessed Sacrament. I can say with much certainty that adoration of Jesus hidden in the tabernacle, where He is very much alive, is the biggest treasure that the Catholic Church has.

peace and joy come. I can confirm that if I arrive in any kind of condition – broken, tired, disappointed, spent, empty... ALWAYS after this hour I leave re-born, peaceful, extremely happy within, full of joy, light and strength to continue my walk in life.

Adoration for me is meeting with my best Friend, the one who has time for me and is interested in everything in my life. When I meet a good friend I am not able to talk about everything in ten minutes... I have the desire to be with that person as long as possible, because I feel very well

Zdvoj. <http://www.angelqueen.org>

There is a place within me that has been opening up, enabling me to discover my deep identity, and where the Lord is filling me up with the most secret desires of my heart. It is the endless, marvelous presence of the living Bridegroom, King and God, who is the most Beloved Father, the most tender and faithful Friend, the most wise Doctor, but above all the most delicate Creator of the soul.

Since then I kneel every day before the Eucharist for an hour. For some people one hour seems a long time, but it takes time for the noise, chaos and problems to fade away. It is when the sound of all kind of spurious thoughts has gone, that his presence. We don't have a lot of true friends in our lives.

Jesus has never disappointed me. EVER! He never lets me leave empty-handed. He is interested in every detail that I experience in my life. I talk with Him about everything and then I listen. I am simply close to Him, at his feet. I do nothing, I am just there. It is the same as when you soak up the rays of the sun – whether you want it or not, your face will change. So it is when we are before the Lord. If I want it or not, He is filling me up with His gifts and His grace.

The time of adoration is for me a time of silence, to switch off, time to go within, to quieten down, to listen. I switch off and solve nothing.

Jesus says we can do nothing without Him. Come to me all of you who are hungry and thirsty and I will comfort you and feed you. It is not possible to adore Jesus in every city, or perhaps the Blessed Sacrament is only exposed once a week. But if the church is open, the Blessed Sacrament is most usually there enclosed in the tabernacle, and so Jesus is present and he is waiting for us all the time!

I can confirm from the bottom of my heart, that whenever I came to Jesus to adore Him in any kind of inconclusive situation, I ALWAYS left in peace and full of inner joy, and at the same time with light on how to continue to live my life.

During these fifteen years I have changed my work a number of times, I have traveled a lot in the world, I have met many people and have made some wonderful friends. Friendship with God is the most beautiful adventure in life.

Any challenging situation I had at work or with colleagues, thanks to daily adoration the situations changed, or the hearts of colleagues changed and sometimes even turned into beautiful friendships. It was when I was weak that the Lord was acting through me.

Once I lived in England and I was traveling by bus from one side of country to the other. During the breaks in this journey, which were around half an hour, I would walk to see the city where we were. There was always a church or cathedral close by and when I went in my heart jumped for joy because then I was able to have some silent adoration. Beloved Jesus, my most faithful Friend, was waiting for me there.

Of these many experiences, I would like to share one in particular. In England I was working in a somber industrial city, in a hospital in the department of psychiatry, where there were some extremely difficult patients. I often had to travel far to find a Catholic Church where there was adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Once I took a patient with me on a walk. He was a very complicated psychiatric case. We were walking around the church. I explained him who was in there and what we would do. I told him he could not scream or cry, because often he used to babble some sounds. It was a Saturday just before Easter. For me it was very interesting to see this psychiatrically ill young man adoring Jesus tenderly. In the end I couldn't even get him out of church. He was hit so strongly by the Lord that he didn't want to leave.

Jesus is touching us with His endless love and tenderness and heals all of us. Each one of us needs this experience of how much we are loved. The presence of Jesus is so strong and attractive, and I wish everyone to experience it.

Our Lady in Medjugorje in her messages often says: "Kneel before my Son Jesus in the Eucharist to be able to receive extraordinary graces. Pray and adore my Son – let His peace and joy enter into your hearts." It is true. Nobody will understand us and love us as much as Jesus. If Jesus is in the first place then we can live even the impossible.
