MESSAGE OF OUR LADY, QUEEN OF PEACE

July 25, 2010

"Dear children!

Anew I call you to follow me with joy. I desire to lead all of you to my Son, your Savior. You are not aware that without Him you do not have joy and peace, nor a future or eternal life. Therefore, little children, make good use of this time of joyful prayer and surrender.

Thank you for having responded to my call."

MESSAGE OF OUR LADY, QUEEN OF PEACE

Through Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo - August 2, 2010

"Dear children!

Today I call you, together with me, to begin to build the Kingdom of Heaven in your hearts; that you may forget that what is personal and - led by the example of my Son - think of what is of God. What does He desire of you? Do not permit Satan to open the paths of of earthly happiness, the paths without my Son. My children, they are false and last a short while. My Son exists. I offer you eternal happiness and peace and unity with my Son, with God; I offer you the Kingdom of God. Thank you."

REFLECTIONS FOR PRAYER GROUPS

I DESIRE TO LEAD ALL OF YOU TO MY SON, YOUR SAVIOR

*...there is no life without Him...
He is the One we long

According to the visionaries, The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared for the first time on June 24th, 1981 holding baby Jesus in her arms. Our Lady as Our Mother gives us Jesus and leads us to Him. Her motherly role is not finished. Through Her messages we can experience how great Our Lady's desire is that Jesus would be spiritually born in our hearts. In today's message, our Lady tells us: "I want to lead all of you to my Son and my Savior." No one knows the way to Jesus as His Mother does. It was She who conceived Jesus by the Holy Spirit. She bore Him in Her immaculate womb. She gave birth to Him and nursed Him. She watchfully accompanied every step of His all the way to Calvary. Also today She intercedes for us before Her Son. Today, too, She wants that we would know Him and be united with Him and follow Him.

Through many of Her messages we see how much She desires that we would come closer to Jesus and know Him deeper. She knows very well that there is no life without Him and that He is the One we long for. In Her messages She exhorts us:

„...Little children, open your hearts and give me everything that is in them: joys, sorrows and each, even the smallest, pain, that I may offer them to Jesus; so that with His immeasurable love, He may burn and transform your sorrows into the joy of His resurrection...“

„...Little children, renounce that which hinders you from being closer to Jesus...“

„...I wish to renew you and lead you with my Heart to the Heart of Jesus, which still today suffers for you and calls you to conversion and renewal...“

„...I invite you to open the door of your heart to Jesus as the flower opens itself to the sun. Jesus desires to fill your hearts with peace and joy. You cannot, little children, realize peace if you are not at peace with Jesus. Therefore, I invite you to confession so Jesus may be your truth and peace...“

„...I desire to draw you ever closer to Jesus and to His wounded heart that you might be able to comprehend the immeasurable love which gave itself for each one of you...“

„...My invitation that you live the messages which I am giving you is a daily one, specially, little children, because I want to draw you closer to the Heart of Jesus. Therefore, little children, I am inviting you today to the prayer of consecration to Jesus, my dear Son, so that each of you may be His...“

These are only a few words coming from the motherly Heart of Our Lady, which makes us realize the desire of Our Lady to bring us closer to Jesus. Our Lady wishes that an authentic desire for Jesus, Our Savior would be awakened in our hearts. She wants us to desire God and that our prayer would be persistent and tireless.

Prayer is the only way that leads to God. God comes to seek us through Our Lady but it is not enough because we need to open ourselves to God so that He could encounter us. All that we have to do is to long for Him. This is also what we see in the life of the great mystic, Angela Folinsk. One day she realized that her life needed a change. She felt that there was a great longing for God in her heart but at the same time there was also a longing for earthly things. Almost in an instant she was given to experience being reunited with God, as if her body was again joined together with her spirit and thus created only one desire in her heart. In that moment she heard these words in her heart: "Angela, what do you want?" From the bottom of her heart she cried out: "I long for God!" And she heard in her heart God saying: "I will fulfill all the desires of your heart and soul." And God heard the cry of her soul. God really takes seriously all our sincere desires and prayers. He wants to hear the cry of our heart.

Every man experiences in his life division and restlessness in thousands of his thoughts, intentions and desires. Nonetheless in the midst of all the bustle God hears the cry of our soul for Him. Only this cry can calm our thought and bring us peace.

God calls us through Our Lady by name and asks us: "What do you want?" Blessed are those who say: "I want God!"

May Our Lady, who is blessed for she believed, obtain for us all the graces we need from God so that we could together with Her say: "May it be done to me according to Thy word."

Let us ask Our Lady to help us get to know Jesus so that we could gain eternal life. Jesus said: "Now this is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent."

Let us allow Our Lady to lead us to Jesus, Who is the only mediator between God and men.

Let us pray: Blessed Virgin Mary, we come to you with trust because you have never forsaken those who prayed to you. Our dearest Mary, you, who in your womb bore baby Jesus, lead us on the way of holiness. May a deep desire for God be born in our heart. You, oh Mary, who are full of grace and totally focused on God, lead us to Him so that we could even now experience peace and happiness which can be granted to us only through Jesus. May our hearts become one with your Heart and the Heart of Jesus, our Savior. Dearest Mary, in a special way we ask you for all the young people that are coming in these days to Medjugorje especially for the time of Youth prayer festival. Place your hands on all of them. May all experience in their hearts your motherly love. May your love, dearest Mary, lead them to Jesus Who is the only true healer of our heart and soul. May their eyes encounter the glimpse of Jesus which is full of love and which calls them to surrender. Amen.

And God said:

"I will fulfill all the desires of your heart and soul."

Our Prayer Groups will meet on Saturday, August 7, 2010.

In this month we pray for ALL YOUNG PEOPLE, especially for those in need and difficulties.

DEAR FRIENDS OF THE QUEEN OF PEACE!

“...I am not important, important is only my Son, Jesus...”
“...in Him you will find true peace and the joy of your heart...”

Our Heavenly Mother begins the latest message with a simple and sincere call: “Follow me with joy.”

We have also enrolled in Her school and want to be like Her. The visionaries tell us, “When Our Lady started to appear to us, we fell in love with Her. There was nothing difficult for us to do for Her.” We have also experienced Her motherly love, heard Her call, “Help me so I can help you.” We can respond to Her love by creating new prayer groups and meet for prayer in order to become Her extended hands in this world. Let us be responsible and grateful that we have gotten to know the right path.

We see how difficult it is for a man to stand the test of time full of traps and intrigues, because we have departed from God. We see many people without joy and peace, having no meaning in life. Many have no idea where they are going and the reason for their existence. They feel like refugees lost in a maze of materialism, addicted to various things and seeking peace in wrong places. Mary needs us, believes in us, and entrusts all mankind to us. Our love for Her inspires us to pray and serve just as She did. This month, let us try to imitate Her humility, undistinguished service, and calm surrender to God. Every day we are given a chance to exercise the virtues of Our Lady. Through prayer, Mary unnoticeably enters into our life and penetrates us with Her presence. She is an example for us - not that we would stop at Her - but to continue and come to Jesus. For She is the gate through which we encounter Jesus.

In Medjugorje, Our Lady tells us, “I am not important, important is only my Son, Jesus. I desire to lead you all only to Him, and in Him you will find true peace and the joy of your heart.”, as She reminded us in last months message.

In the Bible we find very little about Our Lady. May Her humility we see in the Gospel be a source of inspiration for us. This month let us focus and read these passages. When doing so, soon we will realize She is calmly present throughout the entire Gospel. She always puts herself in last place; Her Son Jesus always takes first place. If we decide to follow Mary, soon we will find Jesus.

The latest message is anew for us confirmation of the truth: Mary is the gate to Jesus.

With joy and new zeal, let us respond to Her latest message. Let us follow Her and put ourselves in last place so that others, through the Heart of Mary, may see Jesus present in us.

Let us pray: Mary, our dearest Heavenly Mother, we love you. We thank you for your trust in us. We desire to follow you with joy. We cannot get lost with you. Your humility shows us the way to the Heart of your Son. Give us the garment of your humility so that we can reflect you to others.

Terezia Gaziova

...Today I call you to accept and live my messages with seriousness. These days are the days when you need to decide for God, for peace and for the good. May every hatred and jealousy disappear from your life and your thoughts, and may there only dwell love for God and for your neighbor. Thus, and only thus shall you be able to discern the signs of the time. I am with you and I guide you into a new time, a time which God gives you as grace so that you may get to know him more... January 25, 1993

...Little children, I led and am leading you through this time of grace, that you may become conscious of your Christian vocation. Holy martyrs died witnessing: I am a Christian and love God over everything. Little children, today also I invite you to rejoice and be joyful Christians, responsible and conscious that God called you in a special way to be joyfully extended hands toward those who do not believe, and that through the example of your life, they may receive faith and love for God.... November 25, 1997

...Today I extend my hands towards you. Do not be afraid to accept them. They desire to give you love and peace and to help you in salvation. Therefore, my children, receive them. Fill my heart with joy and I will lead you towards holiness. The way on which I lead you is difficult and full of temptations and falls. I will be with you and my hands will hold you. Be persevering so that, at the end of the way, we can all together, in joy and love, hold the hands of my Son. Come with me; fear not... March 18, 2008

...The way on which I lead you, through God, is difficult but persevering and in the end we will all rejoice through God.

Therefore, my children, do not stop praying for the gift of faith. Only through faith will the Word of God be light in this darkness which desires to envelope us. Do not be afraid, I am with you... October 2, 2007

„IN THE SCHOOL OF LOVE“

I Love You

„Dear children! Today I am blessing you and I wish to tell you that I love you and that I urge you to live my messages. Today I am blessing you with the solemn blessing that the Almighty grants me. Thank you for having responded to my call.“ (August 15, 1985)

Every mother is an educator. She not only gives physical birth, but she continues to give spiritual birth, and she follows the spiritual growth of the child. Therefore, she repeats her thoughts with her words and gives emphasis to them. Only love can understand this repetition. It is interesting to note that a person who loves, tirelessly keeps repeating and confirming love and devotion to the loved one. Also, the loved person wants to hear repetitious proofs of love. Never has anyone complained about expressions of love with the words, “I heard that already,” or “You said this,” or “You did that already”. More often the opposite happens. We complain when the proofs of love are missing.

Mary, as a mother, knows what Her children need. She lives by the power of love. She educates. This is why She repeats Her messages. The above message was given to us on the great feast of the Assumption. That feast day is solemn for all Her children and not only for the children, but for the Mother as well. The visionaries confirm that on Her feasts days, She comes in a festive gown and is joyful. On this feast day, a multitude of people had gathered from all over the world. She was happy and She gave a blessing, showing Her motherly love over and over again. This is an opportunity to tell Her children to live in harmony with Her messages.

God Himself is observing this and is glorified through Mary's Assumption. He clothed Her in the sun, with the moon under Her feet, and He surrounded Her with stars. He allows special blessings. Joy is obvious. Her joy produces love and is born of love. And this is the way of peace.

Let them praise His name in the festive dance,

Let them sing praise to Him with a drum and harp.

For Yahweh loves His people and He adorns the lowly with victory.

Let the faithful exult in glory:

Let them sing for joy upon their couches.”

(Ps 149:1-5)

GOD'S TEN COMMANDMENTS—VII.

“You shall not steal.”

God created man in His own image and likeness and made him unique and different from all other creations. A human being is the most precious thing God created. No person created himself; no person gave himself life. We are not the originators of the gifts and talents we have. None of us created the sky or hills or flowers. We received all these as gifts from our Heavenly Father. He created and made us the lord over earthly things, in order to manage and rule over them; not as individuals, but as a community. God created us to live in unity with Him and with our neighbors. Only in community can we live and grow in our gifts and talents. We live out of love and for love. This commandment guides us and leads us to live in relationship with others in a very concrete way. It teaches us to make real steps to learn how to behave towards our neighbor's possessions, and also towards the common possessions that belong to us all.

The Seventh Commandment tells us about righteousness and love in administering earthly goods and fruits of human labor. Thus, it forbids taking or keeping our neighbor's possessions unfairly, and in whatever way, causing the damage of our neighbor's possessions. Every person has a right to keep private property and possessions, but only when acquired in a righteous and honest way. When talking about common possessions that serve many, we need to handle it gently, causing no damage to it. We sin against this commandment when we seize and keep things that do not belong to us (such as theft, robbery, taking lost items, bribery, vandalism, cheating, etc.).

Many times we excuse ourselves by saying we are taking only what belongs to us. It may even become normal for us to carry away things that are not ours. When walking across the vineyard we are used to taking a bunch of grapes and going on our way without any remorse. We consider it something normal, even though we do not own the vineyard. This can be a good example for us. We should consider the great effort the owner of the vineyard made to cultivate it. He had to wake up early every morning, hoe, spray and prune the vines. If each passer-by took just one berry, in few days the vineyard would be without any fruit. If we were the owner of that vineyard, how would we feel? Therefore, even small thefts, such as at work, is not allowed because it also damages the property of someone - in this case, the owner of the company. Theft also means not paying wages, speculating, fiddling, property fraud at the expense of others, falsification of checks, invoices and other official documents to enrich one self, and by raising prices to take advantage of the unknowingness and poverty of others.

We can also consider theft as tax or financial fraud, abuse of common possession for private purpose, or dishonoring a contract or promise. Stolen items never become our property despite the length of time we keep it. We are always to return stolen items and refund the damage. It is a condition under which we can receive forgiveness for this sin. It is not enough to just confess to stealing. The person needs to give the stolen item back or to refund the damage caused. Many times we see neighbors who live next door to each other, but do not talk to one another because of a minor land or property dispute. In many cases they even do not know whose fault it originally was, but despite this they still remain in hatred. As we have already said, we were created in order to love God from all our heart and love our neighbor as ourselves. Therefore, it is necessary for us to lead good lives, and to live and behave toward others the way we wish them to act toward us.

The life of a man is part of a particular system and constitution. Just as every family has certain rules, we also need to keep laws and rules and always act in a righteous way. The Seventh Commandment forbids such deeds that lead to the enslavement of human being, abuse of his personal dignity, and the buying, selling or exchange of a person, as if they were property. In this commandment we encounter in a special way, the social teaching of the Church when speaking about subjects such as nature conservation, protection of animals, economic and social matters, responsibility of state, but also responsibility of a citizen, etc.

Every righteous labor is sacred, because through it, we become collaborators of God – the Creator of the world. We have no right to despise any righteous labor. Man is to perform labor in a righteous and responsible way. One who is able to work but avoids it, and lives by taking advantage of others, commits a sin. In the same way, the owner who does not give wages to his employees commits sin. Government has an obligation and responsibility for economic activity. Our role as lay people is to share in political and social life, and to protect and live according to the Gospel in every area of our life (here we can point to participation in elections, etc.).

This commandment also deals with nature and animals – everything that was created and given to us as a gift which we need to care about.

Human dignity opposes ruthless behavior towards animals. It is not forbidden to have a relationship with animals. However, it is inadmissible for animals to become the subject of such love that is appropriate only for human beings. It is very sad when people spend a lot of money on toys, clothes and special food for their pets, while at the same time there are people dying of starvation in neighboring or distant countries.

The Seventh Commandment shows us a simple way to love those who do not possess as much as we do - the poor. It is the way that leads us to do real deeds and to help these people and anew their dignity. Today's world needs to see Christians as those who testify. As those who fully live their Christian calling and live as children of light and not children of darkness. People who do not steal, cause damage to others property, dishonor others, or do not bribe or cheat during exams. The world needs people who love God and recognize their brother or sister in others. Witnesses who are living images of our Heavenly Father; whose goodness and love shown is presented from this commandment, so everyone around us will live good lives.

Marta Pincelova

*... I invite you, little children, to see at this time who needs your spiritual or material help. By your example, little children, you will be the extended hands of God, which humanity is seeking. Only in this way will you understand that you are called to witness and to become joyful carriers of God's word and of His love...
(February 25, 1997)*

Questions for Reflection and Discussion:

- 1. Together you can read a passage from Luke 19, 1-10 and compare the life of Zaccheus before and after his encounter with Jesus. Let us reflect upon the change of his life and compare it to our life with Jesus.*
- 2. Everything comes from our desires. We want what we long for. Together let us pray Psalm 63 in order that our greatest desire would be to live with God in unity.*
- 3. Let us help others around us in a very concrete way. While reading this article, if you realize you stole* something, do your best to compensate, right the wrongs, even when considering family quarrels that have gone on for ages.

- 4. Let us pray for those who steal others but in so doing are not aware that they harm their neighbors.*

I can no longer live without Medjugorje...

TESTIMONY

Priest Leonid, redemptorist from Ukraine province, participated in the 15th International seminar for priest in Medjugorje and gave the testimony, first to the other participants and then to Radio Station Mir Medjugorje. We publish the testimony as it was given:

„My first pilgrimage to Medjugorje was related to my obligations and to my occupation in the priest vocation. Namely, in 2005 local Church entrusted me with huge responsibility and gave me heavy burden to carry and that was service of exorcist. The first months and the very first year were filled with God's love and grace, but also with great difficulties and temptations. One of the major difficulties took place during one session of exorcism over one possessed person. That person spoke to me in very rough voice, full of horror in these words: "I am horrible, I am powerful, and I will destroy you. I will destroy your priesthood and all of your life." Although that was quite bad, I did not take that seriously at all. After all, I believed in God completely and I did not have any reasons to doubt that. I also knew that if I had fear in front of the Satan that would be as if I already lost something. But God allowed this situation to take place, and I am going to share with you how great and how mighty his Mother is, and how Medjugorje is sacred ground.

When I was in great pain, when I suffered and when I was tempted daily, I was not able to pray at all. I would go to confession every single day, but Satan tempted me all the times. The temptations were so strong that I lost peace in my soul completely. And not only that, I also felt that I lost my priesthood and my vocation. I felt that was complete and total destruction of my life. In that difficult reality, while I was still unable to figure out what was happening to me, somebody offered me to come to Medjugorje. And I came. I was with a group of priests. I was just not able to pray, not even when they prayed. During that pilgrimage I met one other priest, father Ambrosias from Slovakia. He completely sacrificed his life and his vocation working with people from Ukraine in the region of Carpatho - Ukraine. He travelled soon after heart attack, and he also had diabetes. He was a Franciscan priest who came to Medjugorje five times before that. He absolutely thrilled me with his life and humbleness. He became my friend, I would help him around, take him by the hand, as he was older man. It appeared as I was helping to him, but the truth was that it was the other way round. We were once climbing up the Hill of Apparitions and it was to be the apparition to one of the visionaries. Everything was packed with people, priests. I sat next to Fr. Ambrosias and I turned my back to the apparition site. I felt myself not worthy of being there at all. But during the time of the Rosary, I felt desire to look towards that direction, to see what was happening there. At the same time, as I felt that desire, other inner voice was saying to me not to look there. You are failure and you will end up in hell, I heard. It was horrible. Those first, positive feelings directed my look towards the apparition site. I started to look and I was searching for a sign. Maybe I was to see something at the end. Hope was being born in me slowly, but also more new arguments about how my humiliation was not to be changed. But, I believed in crucial moment. Just for a moment. And in that very moment, as the answer to all of the questions ever rose, I was able to feel how Our Lady was coming down, from Heaven to this world. It was horrible in that moment. Such a powerful perception, scent of the other world I used to feel up to that point. And then, I was appeased by certain gentleness, light touch, like a gentle breeze of Our Lady's presence. She was coming closer to me. And as She was closer to me, the power of evil was disappearing. In my heart I experienced new revelation. I was able to experience how powerful Her presence is, how she was humble. Then I realized that She does not cast away evil spirits, but they ran themselves. They are not able to bear Her purity and beauty of Her presence. She does not humiliate them nor She sends them away. She simply loves them and they can not stand that! And then, change of spirits within me took place. Spirit of Satan, spirit that destroys, disappeared with all of his depressions and fears. Instead of that spirit, Our Lady's spirit took place. In my heart, I heard the voice: "Do not be afraid, I am your mother! I am your guarantee that you will not be destroyed, that you will not fail." Everything was changed.

That experience of presence of Our Blessed Mother became miracle of love that saves me, my vocation and my life! I started to feel Our Lady's presence in every exorcism I perform. I will just share one little example, since there are many similar ones. Our priests were dealing with one possessed girl who came to confess in front of one young priest who just returned after his studies in Rome. And as he was saying the absolution words, that person, Satan in that person hit that priest so hard that he felt down immediately. Then, the same person started calling other priest in some strange voice. That priest was scared and he called me. After few moments that girl was in front of me and I started to pray over her. As I began exorcism, I knew the diagnosis straight away, the girl was severely possessed and I invited five devoted faithful to pray as well. As I recited traditional prayers of exorcism, Satan just laughed. It spoke to me in English language, humiliated me and constantly laughed at me. Then, I began to pray to Our Lady. I was totally exhausted. I began to be nervous as well. I felt that I need to finish my prayer, but the evil spirit was not going away. It was the spirit of suicide. I began to call Our Lady with all of my heart. In the same way as the child calls his mom. And real screaming began at those moments: "I can not stay here any longer, Our Lady is here, I need to go away." And the spirit was gone. This was just one situation and there are so many similar ones. During these five years, as I have been entrusted the service of exorcism, I experience many temptations and trials. I had those before; I know I will have those in the future as well. But, Our Lady keeps me in Her heart. I can no longer live without Medjugorje and Jerusalem. I need to be in Medjugorje and Jerusalem every year. That is what faith is for me. Here I have faith, blessing and grace.

I am grateful to dear God that I am able to witness Our Lady's grace in this way. I would like each one of us to want to love more our Blessed Mother, Mother of God. She is our Mother. She loves Her children. She is prepared to do anything Her children ask of Her. I feel that if it wasn't for Her presence, we would all be destroyed. That is why we should try to live every second of our lives with Her.

I feel personal invitation to help other people to come to Medjugorje. To bring here all of those people who experience tremendous spiritual suffering." At the end, priest Leonid blessed all of the listeners of Radio Mir.

The 21st International Youth Festival with the main theme: "Good Master, what shall I do to inherit the eternal life" began in Medjugorje on August 1st with the evening Holy Mass and finished on August 6th, Feast of Transfiguration with the Holy Mass at 5 a.m. on the top of the Cross Mountain. Prior to the Holy Mass on first evening, young people from 69 various countries introduced themselves and were welcomed by Fr. Petar Vlastic, parish priest from Medjugorje. Opening Holy Mass was celebrated by Provincial of Herzegovina Franciscan Province, Fr. Ivan Sesar. Every evening there are around 500 priests who concelebrate at Holy Masses, and the entire programme is being simultaneously translated in various world languages: English, German, Polish, Slovakian, Italian, Spanish, Korean, Russian, Czech, Hungarian, Romanian, Portuguese, Arabian, Chinese, and Slovenian, while smaller language groups are translating in their own languages. The newspaper “Voice Medjugorje” is a call, an invitation for everyone who wishes to pray for intentions of Queen of Peace and for realization of Her plans. By witnessing in our lives we long to become Mary’s Light to this world, to spread peace all around.

“Dear children! Today also, joy is in my heart. I wish to thank you for making my plan possible to become reality. Each of you is important therefore, little children, pray and rejoice with me over every heart that has converted and become an instrument of peace in the world. Prayer groups are powerful, and through them I can see, little children, that the Holy Spirit is at work in the world. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Our newspaper is published monthly since December, 2004. The new issue is sent via email a few days after the Virgin Mary gives Her message on each 25th day of the month. Voice Medjugorje is published in Russian, Ukrainian, Slovak, Lithuanian, Lithuanian, German and English language.

Through our newspaper we unite in prayer with our brothers and sisters from prayer groups mostly from the eastern countries – Russia, Ukraine, Lithuania, Latvia, Moldavia, Belorussia, Kazakhstan, Tajikistan, but also Pakistan, India, Slovakia, Czech Republic, USA, Germany.

IN OUR LIVES WE ATTEMPT TO FOLLOW THE MESSAGES OF OUR LADY, WHICH MEANS:

- to pray three rosaries a day
- to fast every Wednesday and Friday
- to confess monthly
- to attend Holy Masses, often receive Holy Communion and adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament
- to pray for the priests and Church
- to meet in prayer groups at least once a week, according to agreement of the members
- to help and serve our neighbour in a specific way

We usually meet in prayer on the first Saturday of each month. If possible, the prayer meetings are held on this day. At meetings, we pray three rosaries, attend Holy Mass, Adoration and read reflections from the newspaper. We all pray for the intentions given in the newspaper, for the period of a whole month.

If you want to join us in prayer or our newspaper, please send an email to: gospa3@gmail.com
